Hong Kong Baptist University Faculty and Staff Union

What kind of organization is Hong Kong Baptist University Faculty and Staff Union*?

The Hong Kong Baptist University Faculty and Staff Union is an autonomous and independent organization of faculty and staff of the University, with the aims of promoting the spirit of solidarity and mutual help among colleagues. In the near term, it seeks to protect the rights of employees of the University by participating in the pay and reward structure review process. In the long run, it seeks to supervise the running of the University so that it can fulfill its founding missions as a Christian university and are making contributions to Hong Kong and China.

The Union has five missions:

1. To fight for fair and reasonable wages and other employment conditions, protecting the interests of its members:
2. To overcome the sense of powerlessness and alienation among employees so that colleagues in the University can fully address their concerns about the status quo and future development of the University:
3. To promote collegiality and understanding between the Union and the employer, and try to set up permanent mechanisms for equal communication with the employer:
4. To ensure that the employer cannot discriminate against University employees that participate in union activities, and
5. To provide legal advice and assistance to registered members in cases of legal disputes over employee rights, and support union members in hearings in Labour Tribunal when needed.

* The Union has successfully registered under the "Trade Union Ordinance", and the name of the Union will be submitted to University Council for confirmation.
